1. Dental Council of India

Dental Council of India is a Statutory Body incorporated under an Act of Parliament viz. The Dentists Act, 1948 (XVI of 1948) to regulate the Dental Education and the profession of Dentistry throughout India and it is financed by the Govt. of India in the Ministry of Health & Family Welfare (Department of Health) through Grant-in-aid. The General Body of the Dental Council of India representing various State Governments, Universities, Dental Colleges, Central Government, etc.

The Dental Council of India is the recommendatory body to the Central Government for grant of permission for establishment of a dental college, opening of a new or higher course of study, increase in in-take capacity at the Under Graduate and Post Graduate level.

2. Powers and Duties of the Council

The Council in order to discharge of its functions is empowered to:

(i) Constitute Committees for general or special purposes at it deems necessary to carry out the purposes of the Dentists Act;
(ii) appoint a Secretary who may also, if so decided by the Council, act as Treasurer;
(iii) appoint such other officers and servants as the Council deems necessary to enable it to carry out its functions under this Act;
(iv) Determine the conditions of the services of the employees.

The Council discharges its statutory functions and duties conferred upon it by the Dentists Act.
3. Powers and Duties of Employees

Section 8(1) of the Dentists Act, 1948 inter alia provides that the Council shall
(a) appoint a Secretary who may also, if so decided by the Council, act as Treasurer; (b) appoint such other officers and servants as the Council deems necessary to enable it to carry out its functions under this Act; (c) require and take from the Secretary or from any other officer or servant such security for the due performance of his duties as the Council considers necessary; and (d)
With the previous sanction of the Central Government, fix the fees and allowances of the President Vice-President and other members of the Council, and the pay and allowances and other conditions of service of officers and servants of the Council.

Section 52 to 56 of the Regulations of the Dental Council of India, 1956 (as modified upto February, 1982) lays down the "powers and duties of Secretary and other officers and servants of the Council". The provision reads as under:-

"Secretary

52. The term of office of the Secretary shall be fixed by the Council at the time of appointment. He shall normally retire on attaining the age of superannuation as applicable to the Central Government employees of the corresponding rank. Extension of service beyond the date of superannuation may be granted by the Council in exceptional cases on the recommendations of the Executive Committee but no such extension shall be given without the prior approval of the Government of India."

53. He shall perform such duties as have been given in the Act and the Regulations. He shall also be responsible for the safety of the property of the Council and the control and management of the office, accounts and correspondence, and shall see that the office staff attend punctually, and generally fulfill all such duties as may be required of him by the Council for the purposes of the Act. He shall attend and the notes of the proceedings of meetings of the Council and Executive Committee and any Sub-Committee.

The Secretary, shall not less than 90 days before the expiration of the term of any existing appointment, draw the attention of the President to the approaching vacancy, in order that a new appointment may be made to take effect from the day on which the existing appointment will expire.

Staff

54. Members of the Ministerial and non-ministerial staff and Class IV servants shall retire on attaining the age of superanuation as applicable to the Central Government employees of the corresponding rank. Extension of service beyond the date of superanuation may be granted by the Executive Committee in accordance with the Central Government's general orders on the subject issued from time to time.

55. The powers and duties of the staff will be such as may be laid down from time to time in the standing orders as framed for the purpose by the Council.

56. (1) Subject to the approval of the President, the Secretary shall appoint the ministerial staff and class IV servants and may engage such temporary personnel as may be required from time to time, and pay a reasonable rate of remuneration to such personnel, provided it does not exceed the rate sanctioned by the Central Government for corresponding permanent staff. These appointments shall be subject to conformation by the Executive Committee.
(ii) The Council may, on the advice of the Executive Committee, recommend to the Central Government to convert any existing sanctioned temporary post of an officer, a member of the ministerial staff or a class IV employees into a permanent one after taking into account the volume of work of permanent nature attached to the post and orders on the subject issued by the Central Government from time to time and that the orders of the Central Government in this respect shall be final."
